CONVENTIONS

The Republican National Convention meets at Chicago, June 16, 1908.

Read the Herald and keep posted on all current events.

So far the Republican candidate for governor is Hadley.

You can get all items of news and a volume of other reading matter in the Herald. Try it and see.

The Herald will reach the 2,000 mark in the next three months if she keeps up her present rate of increase.

The bill to release Sub-Treasurer Tom Atkins and his bondsmen from paying that $51,500 was defeated as it should have been.

Our addition of new type, new borders and increased office force has placed the Herald in a position to serve you well and quick in the job printing line.

The second test of the Chicago Presidential ballot indicates that W. H. Tatt, secretary of war, is in the lead and will in all probability get the nomination.

It seems that R. A. Sparks of Scott county and C. A. Crowe, of Pemiscot county are announced candidates for congress in this district on the Republican ticket.

Correspondents that want their items inserted in the Herald must sign them, otherwise they will go into the waste basket. We had to salt an article this week on account of no name being signed.

There are six Democratic candidates for governor of Missouri. These are W. S. Cowherd of Kansas City, David A. Ball of Pike, James Whitecotton of Monroe, Judge W. H. Wallace of Kansas City, F. S. Stapel of Atchison, J. L. Fort of Dexter, and E. C. Crowe is thinking of becoming a candidate.

Edward F. Regenhardt has happened to bad luck ever since he was made delegate to the National Republican convention. He got left at St. Louis and did not get to go with the crowd to Kansas City and on his return to the Cape he had to knock a man down in self defense to keep the fellow from running over him. But when Ed gets to Chicago all will be well.

The Herald subscription list continues to grow. Our solicitors over the county are doing well. Our subscribers are coming to the front. We have but to notify the greater portion of our list that their time is up and they send in their renewal. New names are continually added to our already large list. The last name added is from far away Spokane Washington.
